STUDENT PROPOSAL FOR CMSC 288 – Computer Science Apprenticeship

Submit three copies of this form to the chair of the department. A departmental committee must approve your proposal before you may proceed with the apprenticeship.

Name:_______________________________________________________

Student ID: _____________________________________________ Email: ______________________

Faculty Supervisor:__________________________________________

Semester and year in which apprenticeship will take place:_________ Graduation year: ____________

Proposed number of units (0.25 or 0.5):_____________

Attach a printed copy of your Web transcript to this form and check one of the following:

___ Completion of at least CMSC 221 at the University of Richmond and at least a 3.7 grade point average in all Computer Science major courses taken at the University of Richmond.

___ Completion of at least four Computer Science major courses at the University of Richmond and at least a 3.5 grade point average in all Computer Science major courses taken at the University of Richmond.

___ Completion of CMSC 301, CMSC 315, and at least one CMSC elective at the 300 level and at least a 3.0 grade point average in all Computer Science major courses taken at the University of Richmond.

List all Computer Science major courses taken at the University of Richmond, indicate your grade in each, and your grade point average in all those courses:

Description of Job Responsibilities and Typical Job Tasks (attach separate sheet if necessary):

Basis on which the course grade will be determined (to be completed by faculty supervisor):

Faculty Supervisor signature: ________________________________

Departmental review committee signatures: ________________________________

____________________________________

____________________________________

____________________________________

(Revised Jan 15, 2009)